SCHERER FINDS 'NEW 'PROJECT' OVERSEEING WARD'S CHURCHILL DOWNS STRING

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Sunday, June 7, 2020) – When veteran trainer Merrill Scherer planned his return to Kentucky this spring from New Orleans, he was going to help his son, Eric, and daughter-in-law, Marianne, with their small string of horses at Churchill Downs' Trackside Louisville. That plan changed when Scherer received a call from longtime friend Wesley Ward asking for help with his Churchill Downs division of horses.

"I was sitting down in New Orleans this winter and Wesley called me and asked what I was going to do this spring," said Scherer, who turns 81 in July. "I was down on horses and had planned to come back to Louisville to hang out with my son. When Wesley asked me to come help out at the barn, of course I told him I would."

Scherer has nearly six decades of experience training horses and has 1,413 victories since statistics started being regularly kept for horse racing in 1976. Scherer spent the majority of his training career based in Louisiana and was introduced to Ward's father, Dennis, in the 1960s.

"Since I took that phone call from Wesley, I've dropped eight pounds and ate more food than ever before," Scherer joked. "I've got a good pep in my step working with these horses."

Ward's horses are stabled in Barn 35 at Churchill Downs. The world-traveling Ward has horses based throughout the U.S. and targets many of the international race meets including Royal Ascot. While Ward has become a regular trainer on the international scene, Scherer plans to remain stateside.

"I don't have a passport and a top hat would look goofy on my head. I'm staying right here," Scherer said.

VOLATILE EARNS 109 BRISNET SPEED RATING WITH SCINTILLATING ARISTIDES VICTORY – Phoenix Thoroughbred III and Three Chimneys Farm's top-class sprinter Volatile earned a stout 109 Brisnet Speed Figure with his eye-catching eight-length score in Saturday's $100,000 Aristides presented by Woodford Reserve (Listed).

Volatile, trained by Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen, was two one-hundredths of a second off the 13-year-old track record when he stopped the clock in a scorching 1:07.57 for six furlongs. The racetrack was still buzzing Sunday morning after Volatile recorded what some deemed one of the most impressive performances they have seen beneath the Twin Spires.

"I've been around horses for a long time and to see a horse have that much acceleration, so quickly, is incredible," said retired trainer and Churchill Downs racing official Steve Penrod.

With Volatile's victory in the Aristides, Asmussen moved one win closer to becoming Churchill Downs' all-time leading trainer. Asmussen trailed Dale Romans 737-to-736 wins at the start of Sunday's 10-race program at Churchill Downs.

"It's been a little bit frustrating not getting there yet," Asmussen said. "We are thankful a horse like Volatile got us one step closer to that mark."

Asmussen had three horses entered on Sunday while Romans had one.
